

William Jason "Nozr" Smith

William Jason "Nozr" Smith, age 50 of Fort Payne, AL, passed away Thursday March 21, 2024 with family and friends by his side. Jason was a class of 1993 graduate of Pell City High School and had a career spanning over 20 years with C&B Piping in Leeds, making a multitude of cherished friendships during his life. He was a fiercely caring, dedicated father and husband and had a deep appreciation of music and nature. In his free time, Jason enjoyed tending to his various aquariums, playing bass and exploring the many wild areas and waterways near his home. Jason is preceded in death by his mother, Wanda Selby Smith, father, Sam Smith, sister, Teresa McClure, and two brothers, Eddie Smith and Jeff Smith. He is survived by his wife of 29 years, Dana Smith, son, Caleb Smith, daughter, Wendy Smith (Elan Lee), and many nieces and nephews.

No funeral service will be held in accordance to his wishes, but family and friends will be welcome to a celebration of life, details to be shared by family soon.
